

ADP® AND ACUMATICA

Empower your business for productivity and growth by integrating two leading HCM and ERP solutions

The key to unlocking business value lies in a data integration strategy, so internal teams can be more productive and proactive. A connected HR, payroll, and ERP solution helps organizations make crucial decisions based on a unified data source. Integrating ADP's Workforce Now HCM system with Acumatica's Cloud ERP solution provides a holistic view of key business data through a top-tier technology stack.

The integration simplifies back-office processes and removes obstacles by syncing people data and post-payroll entries from ADP Workforce Now® to the Acumatica General Ledger platform. Organizations can now introduce cutting-edge best practices into their processes, resulting in improved user engagement, accuracy, and data-informed decision making.
