

Arcoro and Acumatica Integration

Scale to any company size for streamlined labor tracking plus actionable reporting and simpler compliance

Integrate Acumatica Construction Edition Accounting Software with ExakTime, an Arcoro Company

The integration between Acumatica Construction Edition and ExakTime—an Arcoro company—allows you to streamline data between industry leading cloud-based modules:

- Acumatica — Accounting Software
- ExakTime— Time and Attendance

With this connection, automated workflows are created to promote new efficiencies in the security, management and sharing of high-compliance data from system-to-system; creating a looping flow of real-time feedback.

Time data from the ExakTime Time and Attendance module transfers into Acumatica’s Accounting system of record. After required fields are automatically filled in, Acumatica will export the updates including employee, location and cost code back into ExakTime, and/or any other external automated tools you are integrated with.
